PARKING

On-Campus Parking Permit Information

In order for visitors to use a campus parking facility from Mondays at 7:30am through Fridays at 5:00pm, a valid parking permit must be obtained. The permit is in a form of a rear view mirror hang tag. From 5pm Friday through Sunday night, no permits are required in Faculty/Staff Lots. Parking Lot 12 is ONLY for Rutgers students who live in the Residents Halls. Visitors who do not have a valid parking permit will be issued a warning upon their first breach and a ticket thereafter.

Individuals may purchase parking permits for $2 per day (tax included) at the Parking Department (4th and Pearl Streets) during normal business hours. After hours, please obtain a permit from the Police Dispatcher (856) 225 - 6009. Visitors may park on 4th Street next to the Police building while obtaining a permit, then must move their vehicle to the appropriate parking lot. Payments can be made by cash or check. Once received, the Rutgers parking permit must be displayed and clearly visible in the vehicle for parking enforcement officers to see.

Off-Campus Parking Options

Metered Parking:

A limited number of metered parking spots are available along Cooper, Third, Second and Pearl Streets. These are overseen by the Parking Authority of the City of Camden (PACC).

Camden Technology Center:

Secure enclosed parking is available in the Camden Technology Center parking garage for a fee. The garage is located at 601 Cooper Streets. Contact: the lobby desk concierge at (856) 968-1393 for current schedules and rates. The garage is located right next to the Rutgers-Camden campus. Here are walking directions from the garage to the heart of the Rutgers-Camden campus:

1. Once you exit garage, head west (toward River) on Cooper Street, walk two blocks.
2. Enter campus at Fourth and Cooper Streets at the Gateway (large glass artwork)
3. Walk straight until you arrive at flagpole (follow signage).
4. Walk left at flagpole for main entrance to campus.
